

Hi-Lites Of Seaside Heights

By GRACE RYCKMAN AND MERLE HOLSTIN
Frontier 5-3718

The trail that Scouts, in their seeking, blaze
Through the toughest tangle, the deepest maze
Till out of boyhood the Scout comes straight
To manhood's splendid and high estate.
BERTON BRALEY (The Scouting Trail)

Boy Scout Troop No. 276 held its very first "Court of Honor" last week. It drew a large crowd and everyone was so pleased with the ceremony and the manner in which it was handled. Mr. Bob Evans rose to the occasion and gave Scoutmaster Floyd Holstin a well-deserved pat on the back. Future plans for this troop were told and it certainly looks as if the Scouts are in for many a memorable time.

Mr. Win Gravin, Cub Scoutmaster, had his first pack meeting Thursday, March 29 at El Retiro Park. He, too, did an excellent job. He plans to have trains featured at the next meeting; it sounds very interesting. Of course, everyone is invited. Exact date will appear later.

And more of the Gravlins and Scouting. Seems Peg does not feel that she is doing enough with being a den mother. Now she is leader of the Junior High Girl Scouts.

Saturday, April 7, Mrs. Floyd Holstin (Merle) took a "seven girl" Scout patrol on a hike to Walteria and back. The girls were Dolores Dwyer, Dorothy Belheimer, Ellen Gaul, Betty Holstin, Alice Mewborn, Peggy Sanover and Arlene Weber.

Remember the Priestly twins? Well, their grandparents have gone back to Iowa, their daddy, machinist first class, has gone aboard ship, and their mother, Connie, could really enjoy having us ladies visit her, especially if we were willing to hold the sweet little babies, now and then—who wouldn't? What about it, neighbors? That's 5224 Vanderhill.

Oh, incidentally, two more new babies have arrived on Vanderhill. Not by stork express, however. These come from the county and will be cared for by Mrs. Leo Rock until they are adopted. Better stand by to console Mrs. Rock at that time.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Milson like the Heights so well that they talked their neighbors from Hawthorne into moving here too. So we now have Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Noble at 5240 Zakon. He is an engineer at Kier Construction Co., Rosecrans. Web come to the Heights, Mr. and Mrs. Noble.

The Torrance office of the Department of Employment will be a regular participant in the television show "The Classified Column" on KTTV Channel 11, Mrs. Winona Ellis, manager of the local office, disclosed this week.

A representative of the Torrance office, possibly Mrs. Ellis, will appear on April 26, at which time she will tell of the job opportunities existing in this area. The program will be aired Mondays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays from 1 to 1:30 p.m. Other offices of the Department of Employment also have been scheduled for regular appearances on the program.

Occasionally individuals with special skills and background will appear on the program through arrangement by the local employment office to assist both the individual and prospective employer to "get together." Mrs. Ellis is chairman of the Southwestern area consisting of Torrance, Wilmington, San Pedro, Long Beach and the farm labor divisions in Bellflower and Gardena.

Local Navyman Serving With Fleet in Guam

On duty with the Navy's Industrial Department in Guam are two local men, according to Navy dispatches. Raymond O. Buys, of 2064 Torrance boulevard and Donald R. Howell, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Howell, of 2014 West 238th street, are in the unit, which services and repairs ships of the Navy's Pacific Fleet.
